

“Horsing Around the Bluegrass”

International 190SL Group Proposal

September 8th, 2007

9:00AM – 12:00PM

Blue Grass Tours is proud to offer the following tour package for your organization's tour of “The Horse Capitol of the World”.

Group will enjoy a walking tour of historic Keeneland Race Course while the guide explains the history and the importance and impact it brings to the bluegrass. Group will also have a chance to see trainers and their horses as they do their morning workouts.

Then it's on to the historic area of downtown Lexington, group will drive by Mary Todd Lincoln's home, Gratz Park area and Thoroughbred Park where we will have a photo stop.

Last stop will be Old Friends Farm where you'll get off the coach walk thru the paddock and see some famous racing retirees and stallions not to mention Popcorn Delight who pay Seabiscuit in the motion picture! Bring your camera's this is one day you'll want to capture on film!